AGRICULTURAL NOTES

Drought Having Serious Effect Upon Crops Throughout State.

The wheat harvest is far enough advanced that an estimate of the yield may be made with approximate correctness. Correspondents of this department estimate the production at 70 per cent compared with a normal production of 15 bushels per acre. The estimated acreage harvested was 1,577,352 acres. Total production should be approximately 16,562,196 bushels, being 19,468,042 bushels short of 1915 crop.

Oats show a decrease of 2 per cent in prospect compared with estimate of one month ago. The outlook is most discouraging. The severe drought has cut the crop short.

Clover hay will produce an average of 1.6 tons per acre. Timothy put away in best condition for many years with an estimate of 104 per cent compared with an average.

Potatoes show serious damage by drought and bugs and in some localities won't produce half a crop. The general state prospect is estimated at 70 per cent compared with a normal yield, a decrease of 19 points compared with estimate of one month ago.

Apples and peaches are reported as dropping badly. Apples being estimated at 55 per cent compared with an average, and peaches at 49 per cent.

So little infestation by Hessian fly has been reported in Ohio this year that entomologists at the Ohio Experiment Station are now advising farmers that wheat may be seeded at the usual dates this fall without serious damage from this insect. If the pest has been noticeable in any district, community organization may be effective in its control.

Last year an organization of farmers in Miami county and vicinity reduced the infestation by Hessian fly in this year's crop in that section to the normal. In several years immediately preceding wheat growing there had been a gamble. The change came by the farmers waiting for the specialists of the Experiment Station to give the signal to sow. Wheat was not seeded before October. In this way the fly was avoided.

The time for seeding and other facts on wheat culture are given in Bulletin 298, which may be obtained from the Experiment Station at Wooster.

PERRYSBURG CENTENNIAL

One Hundredth Birthday to be Celebrated in Appropriate Manner.

Perrysburg people will celebrate the 100th anniversary of the town's birth by a splendid celebration on Thursday, August 24th, 1916, in which every citizen is cordially invited and earnestly urged to participate.

Although the meetings for making necessary arrangements are held at the Civic Association rooms, it should be understood that every person is invited to be present, whether or not he is a member, and to participate in the work of making Perrysburg Centennial a great success. There is room for every worker and all will be made welcome and given a place where they can do the most good.

Plans now provide for a pageant representing ten decades of historical events that have been incidental to the development of the village during the past 100 years.

These periods will be represented by allegorical floats especially arranged for the occasion, and the people of the dates represented will be correctly costumed.

Following the historical and in the same pageant will be representations of the business houses of the town, followed by decorated automobiles.

Every church and fraternal organization of the village is invited to participate in the pageant.

Positions in the Civic parade will be assigned by lot, so that no partiality may be shown.

One hundred school children are now in training under the direction of Miss Bertha Hillabrand, and they will render several vocal numbers on the program.

The committee in charge of the program desire that all committees and individuals having in charge any portion of the pageant or taking any part whatever therein, should understand that the pageant will move promptly at 1:30 p. m. and will not be delayed to accommodate any person or exhibit which may not be ready. Such action is necessary in order to complete the afternoon program before supper time.

All floats, exhibits and character representations and organizations intended for the pageant will rendezvous on Indiana avenue not later than 1 p. m., where they will be assigned positions by the committee in charge.

The committee announce the following:

Pageant will form on Indiana avenue, right resting on Locust street, and extending east on Indiana avenue.

Promptly at 1:30 p. m., the pageant will move west to Louisiana avenue; east on Second street to Hickory; north to Front; west on Front to Pine; south to Second; east on Second to Louisiana; to Front, countermarch south on Louisiana avenue to Library and disband.

It is believed the pageant will be one hour in making the march and will therefore disband at 2:30 p. m.

Cure for Cholera Morbus.

"When our little boy, now seven years old, was a baby, he was cured of cholera morbus by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," writes Mrs. Sidney Simmons, Fair Haven, N. Y. "Since then other members of my family have used this valuable medicine for colic and bowel troubles with good satisfaction, and I gladly endorse it as a remedy of exceptional merit." Obtainable everywhere.

During the hour which will elapse between the disbanding of the parade and the opening of the speaking program, the Fremont Light Guard band of 28 musicians will give a band concert at Hood Park.

The speaking and musical program will open at 3:30 p. m.

A platform will be erected on the east bank, opposite the park, from which the program will be given.

The program as now arranged promises a very interesting two hours or more, and if the weather permits the entire afternoon's celebration will prove worthy the time, the place and the people.

There are many people who have not contributed to the Centennial fund and they are invited to call at either of our village banks where their contributions will be thankfully received. Any amount from a jitney to a million bucks will be accepted. Drop it in the box or hand to the bank clerk.

The program for the afternoon has been partially arranged but will not be published until next week. It should be understood that it will commence promptly at 3:30 p. m. and will continue about two hours.

It should be remembered that on this date the entire program and all features of the celebration are free to everybody.

After supper the band will give a concert and it has been suggested that the evening be made a Carnival night in which every citizen, old and young, is invited to participate, by dressing in costume, masked or unmasked as may please the individual and promenade the streets and make the evening one general jollification. The throwing of confetti will be permissible, but any person engaged in throwing flour, talcum or other destructive articles will be promptly arrested by officers who will mingle with the crowds.

The costumes for those participating in the pageant will be supplied by a Detroit costumer and will be historically correct.

To Dr. W. H. Rheinfrank is due much credit for the conception and planning of the historical pageant. In this work he is assisted by C. P. Champney, George Emmerich and John Amon as the Pageant committee.

Mr. R. R. Hartshorn is the committee on Decorations and is busy planning the decorations for the streets along the line of march.

The Program for the day is in charge of the following committee: E. L. Blue, G. B. Lownsbury, T. M. Francy, Geo. J. Munger and R. R. Hartshorn, and this committee will be pleased to have any suggestions or assistance from every person who desires to make the Centennial a success.

Other committees are working equally hard in their endeavor to make the celebration a credit to the village.

Just the Thing for Diarrhoea.

"About two years ago I had a severe attack of diarrhoea which lasted over a week," writes W. C. Jones, Buford, N. D. "I became so weak that I could not stand upright. A druggist recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. The first dose relieved me and within two days I was as well as ever." Many druggists recommend this remedy because they know that it is reliable. Obtainable everywhere.

MOTORCYCLES COLLIDE

Young Man's Leg Broken and Others Receive Painful Bruises.

Daniel Davis, living north of Perrysburg on the avenue road, was riding a bicycle toward town at about 7:30 Saturday evening when he was struck by a motorcycle which approached him from the rear, driven by Arthur Limmer, a neighbor of Davis. Another motorcycle driven by Clifton Hahn followed closely behind Limmer, and when the accident occurred was unable to stop his machine in time to prevent running into the others.

Davis received a broken leg and several painful bruises about the hands and face. Limmer was badly scratched on the arms and legs and his face was bruised. His partner, Martin Schraum, who was riding the tandem seat, was not injured.

Hahn received a few cuts on the face but his partner, George Schraum, was uninjured.

The injured were brought to Drs. Bowers hospital where their wounds were dressed. Examination found Davis' leg was broken in two places between the knee and hip. He is resting as comfortably as possible with prospects of speedy recovery.
